武雄野の自然を静かに残すこの一帯は「はけ」とははれ、歴史、芸術、そして 小説の舞台になり、今でも清速な湧き水があることで広く知られています。 経費かな和風魔側には茶室・観音彙などの遺物を配し、変化に富んだ地形は 春は花、秋の紅葉と四季折々に違った風情を見せます。また良く晴れた日には 流力に丹沢山系や遥か富士の姿も望めます。

This area surrounded by the beautiful Musashino nature is called "Hake". It is known as being the background of numbers of works, such as history, art and Japanese novels. Nowadays, "Hake" is also known for its limpid fountain. In the verdant Japanese garden you can enjoy the Japanese teaceremony house and other artifacts. The change of seasons are marvelously scenic, such as cherry blossoms in spring and colorful maple leaves in autumn. Mt. Fuji and the Tanzawa mountain ranges can be seen on surny days.

竹林に佇む英宝「寂廃」/"Jaku-an". The tea-ceremony house in the barriboo wood.
